The Tanagers held Canton to just one touchdown in the second half of the game.

Rylan Pratt sacked Canton's quarterback causing a fumble that was recovered by Vermillion.

Canton regained possession by recovering a Kratz fumble, which eventually turned into a C-Hawks touchdown and extra point for the 33-6 final score.

"We knew we were going to be undersized coming in, but the biggest thing we took from this is our guys didn't give up, they kept fighting the whole game," Homan said.

The Tanagers rushed for 34 yards in 19 attempts. Noah walker had five carries for 24 yards. Pratt (9 yards) and Logan Peterson (3) each had three carries.

Vermillion had a combined 134 receiving yards against the C-Hawks. Ouellette had two receptions for 90 yards in the game. Pratt caught three passes for 13 yards, Walker caught two for eight and Logan Peterson caught one for 23 yards.

Kratz had eight complete passes on 15 attempts and one touchdown.

"I thought Kratz looked great," Homan said. "He made the reads he was supposed to. The biggest thing was that our (offensive) line didn't get to where they were supposed to be tonight and that's one thing we have to work on going in to next week."

Defensively, Pratt and Walker had Vermillion's two sacks in the game. Ouellette and Sand had seven tackles, Gabe DeJong had 5.5 and Hunter Christopherson contributed five.

"Defensively, we just have to play our gaps, play our responsibilities," Homan said. "We had a lot of guys that were trying to do their own thing, didn't work on the skills that we worked on all of the past two weeks, two months, on things to do so that's just one thing that they have to work on to get better."

Vermillion's next game is at home against Dell Rapids scheduled for a 7 p.m. kickoff.

WS: NORTH DAKOTA 4, SOUTH DAKOTA 0

GRAND FORKS, N.D.—North Dakota's Veronica Kessler came off the bench to score two goals, while teammates Riley Koberinkski and Zoe Foster added one each in UND's 4-0 win over South Dakota at Bronson Field on Sunday.

North Dakota (2-1-0) scored its first goal in the 40th minute following two back-to-back saves by the South Dakota (0-4-0) defense. Kessler picked up the rebound off the second blocked shot and sent it up past the defense and out of freshman Coyote goalkeeper Parker Rytz's reach.

UND added three more goals in a six minute span late in the second half. Koberinkski took a shot in the 73rd minute from the top left of the box to beat Rytz to the far side of the net. Then off a corner kick by UND's Kennedy Kidd the 75th minute, Kessler finished her second goal of the game.

In the first play following a South Dakota goalkeeper substitution, a foul was called in the box which forced sophomore Sydney Hardin to face a penalty kick in the 77th minute. Hardin jumped to the left side of the goal as UND's Zoe Foster sent the ball to the right side of the net for North Dakota's final goal of the match.

South Dakota had 16 attacking opportunities, led by senior Taylor Nivala's four shots. North Dakota's Olivia Swenson grabbed nine saves to keep the Coyotes off the board.
